

IENOVA ANNOUNCES COURT RESOLUTION ON CRIMINAL MATTER

Mexico City, Mexico, October 21, 2016 – Infraestructura Energética Nova, S.A.B. de C.V. (“IEnova”) informs investors that in the year 2009, the District Attorney of Baja California (Procuraduría de Justicia del Estado de Baja California), at the request of Ramón Eugenio Sánchez Ritchie, started an investigation against Sempra Energy, Energía Costa Azul S. de R.L., and several officers and advisors of the company. Sánchez Ritchie claimed that several crimes affecting him were committed.

On October 19, A District Court overruled the amparo suit filed by Sánchez Ritchie. This resolution may still be reviewed by a Higher Court.

IEnova reiterates that it shall continue defending its operations and its prestige through all legal means available, and that it fully trusts in the institutions of the Mexican State, as it has done during its 20 years of operation in the country.
